August 2009

Free London Events is a website dedicated to free events in London. August is a very popular time for free events in London - We are now in the height of summer and in the next 2 months the National Theatre has 300 free riverside events.

For a full list of events go to www.freelondonevents.co.uk

The National Theatre's annual summer festival of outdoor theatre, circus, music, dance, comedy and film on the Southbank until 27 September.

This year we welcome an outstanding range of national and international artists who bring to life various spaces on and around Denys Lasdun's iconic building. The giant playful installation, 'Armchair Theatre', is back for your comfort, providing you with the best seats in (or outside) the house to watch the summer unfold in Theatre Square.

Carnaval del Pueblo

Sunday 2nd August 2009

Carnaval del Pueblo is the event of the year for all Latinos and lovers of their culture. Londoners of all communities come together and share this intense cultural experience.

The festival brings a Latin experience to London with a carnival procession, Latin American artists on 4 different areas and many other activities in Burgess Park.

The Guard Change at Buckingham Palace takes place at 11:30am daily from May until the end of July and on alternate days for the rest of the year, weather permitting.

For more information on this event check out the daily page on our website.

Borough Market

Borough Market is London's oldest food market. It was established on the south bank of the Thames when the Romans built the first London Bridge. It has occupied its present site for 250 years.

Borough Market is open Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Combine a visit to Borough Market to a walk along the Thames, where you can see the Globe Theatre, Tate Modern, Coin Street, National Theatre, Festival Hall and the London Eye.

Talk The Walk.

The "Talk the Walk" page includes mp3 guided tours designed to be downloaded on to your mp3 player and allows you to walk around London and listen to John's commentary. There are now 18 walks on the Talk The Walk and there are new recordings being added every week.

This month we have done walks in Fulham, Victoria Road, Kensington and Marble Arch

Talk The Walk is created with the help of John Kennedy (Black Cab Taxi Driver) and Big George from BBC Radio London.
